Remark AI's Biosafety Platform Chosen for Access Point Temperature Monitoring at One of the World's Largest Gaming Companies

October 26, 2020

Systems Operating on Five Continents

LAS VEGAS, Oct. 26, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Remark Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ: MARK), a diversified global technology company with leading artificial intelligence ("AI") solutions and digital media properties, today announced that one of the world's largest gaming companies based in Las Vegas, and its affiliates, chose Remark AI's biosafety solutions for access point temperature monitoring at all of their domestic and international facilities.

"Businesses continue to evaluate ways to operate safely for employees and customers, and we provide the most effective, efficient, and customizable solutions for enterprises to use as part of their overall health security protocols," said Kai-Shing Tao, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Remark Holdings. "We are thrilled that one of the largest global gaming companies chose to partner with our award winning Remark AI platform to provide the safest environment possible at its 40 locations throughout North America, Europe, Asia, South America, Australia and the Middle East. Our AI biosafety offerings provide companies with best-in-class solutions, better functionality and durability, and a robustness not available in less expensive thermal screening solutions which have limited capabilities."
