HSW International Receives NASDAQ Notification Letter

ATLANTA, Sep 18, 2009 (GlobeNewswire via COMTEX News Network) -- HSW International, Inc., a developer and operator of Internet businesses focused on providing locally relevant, high quality information, today announced that on September 16, 2009, it received a notice from the Nasdaq Stock Market indicating that it no longer complies with the requirements of Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5450(a)(1) for continued listing on the Nasdaq Global Market. The rule requires that shares of HSW International's stock maintain a minimum bid price of $1.00 per share.

HSW International has 180 calendar days, or until March 15, 2010, in which to regain compliance with the listing requirement. If HSW International does not regain compliance prior to the expiration of the 180-day grace period, Nasdaq will provide written notice that HSW International securities are subject to delisting. Alternatively, HSW International may be eligible for an additional 180-day grace period if it meets the initial listing standards, with the exception of bid price, for the Nasdaq Capital Market. To avail itself of this option, HSW International will need to submit an application to transfer its securities to the Nasdaq Capital Market.

Forward-Looking Statements

"Safe Harbor" Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: Statements in this press release that are not historical facts are "forward-looking statements" under the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements. The potential risks and uncertainties address a variety of subjects including, for example: the continued listing of HSW International's securities on the Nasdaq Global Market; reliance on third parties such as World Book for content; challenges inherent in developing an online business in foreign countries, notably China and Brazil, including obtaining regulatory approvals and adjusting to changing political and economic policies; governmental laws and regulations, including unclear and changing laws and regulations related to the internet sector in foreign countries, especially China; general industry conditions and competition; general economic conditions, such as interest rate and currency exchange rate fluctuations; and restrictions on certain intellectual property under agreements with third parties. For a more detailed discussion of such risks and uncertainties, refer to HSW International's reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These risks and uncertainties could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by the forward-looking statements, and therefore should be carefully considered. The forward-looking statements contained herein are made as of the date of this press release, and HSW International assumes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements after the date hereof, except as required by law.
